

DANGEROUS GOODS AWARENESS COURSE

COURSE OBJECTIVES

The course designed for people whose work involves handling, shipping or transporting dangerous goods, in limited quantities or above.

The course is geared around looking at the regulations. The nature of the dangers with chemical substances. Packaging, labelling and documenting those substances, as well as loading, transporting and security around dangerous goods.

This course shows how to complete the dangerous goods note, the checks required for correct packaging, the checks that should be made on carriers or vehicles and looks at the security implications of handling, shipping or transporting dangerous goods, it is a must for office staff, non ADR drivers and staff as well.

ASSESSMENT CRITERIA

Pass or Fail

COURSE LENGTH

Full Day

AWARDING BODY

Highfields

RESOURCES

Online workbooks and information guides available

COURSE COST

Please Request

COURSE CONTENT

INTRODUCTION: WHAT ARE DANGEROUS GOODS?

WHAT GOVERNS STORAGE AND TRANSPORT OF DANGEROUS GOODS: IMDG IATA ADR ETC

IDENTIFICATION OF DANGEROUS GOODS: THE UN NUMBER, PSN'S AND MIXTURES

9 CLASSES: DETAILED INFORMATION REGARDING THE 9 SEPARATE CLASSES

- Explosives
- Flammables
- Corrosive
- Miscellaneous

DEGREES OF DANGER: SEPARATING HAZARDS BY THEIR RISK

PACKAGING REQUIREMENTS: UNITED NATIONS PACKAGING CODES

EXEMPTIONS: LIMITED AND EXCEPTED QUANTITIES

DOCUMENTATION: DGN'S, IATA NOTES, INSTRUCTIONS IN WRITING

LOADING CHECKS: CHECKLISTS, SAFETY EQUIPMENT, DRIVER QUALIFICATION

SECURITY: THREAT MATRIX, IDENTIFICATION, THREATS

